

Commodity Futures Trading Commission Rule 1.55(k): FCM-Specific Disclosure Document - 2018

The Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC”) requires each Futures Commission Merchant (“FCM”), including Wedbush Securities Inc. (“Wedbush”), to provide the following information to a client(s) prior to the time the client(s) first enters into an account agreement with the FCM or deposits money or securities (funds) with the FCM. Except as otherwise noted the information set out is as of the date listed above. Wedbush will update this information annually and as necessary to take account of any material change to its business operations, financial condition or other factors that the company believes may be material to a customer’s decision to do business with Wedbush. Nonetheless, business activities and financial data are not static and will change throughout any 12-month period.

Wedbush also operates as a broker-dealer registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Information that may be material with respect to Wedbush for purposes of the CFTC’s disclosure requirements may not be material for purposes of applicable securities laws and vice versa.

Recent Regulatory Actions:

Pursuant to an offer of settlement in which Wedbush Securities, Inc. neither admitted nor denied the rule violations upon which the penalty is based, on December 10, 2015, the Clearing House Risk Committee found that Wedbush Securities, Inc. violated CBOT Rules 970.C.2 and 971.A. In accordance with the settlement offer, the Clearing House Risk Committee fined Wedbush Securities, Inc. $75,000.

A subcommittee of the ICE Exchange's Business Conduct Committee determined that Wedbush Securities Inc. ("Wedbush") may have violated Exchange Rule 6.15(a) by failing to report large trader positions in multiple instances during the following two time periods: January 2015 through April 2015 and September 2015 through October 2015. The subcommittee further determined that Wedbush may have violated Exchange Rule 4.01 by failing to have an adequate process or procedure in place to discover errors in reporting large trader positions to the Exchange. In June of 2016 the Committee fined Wedbush Securities $20,000.

Pursuant to an offer of settlement in which Wedbush Securities Inc. ("Wedbush") neither admitted nor denied the rule violations upon which the penalty is based, on March 28, 2017, a Panel of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange Business Conduct Committee ("Panel") found that between March 2015 and January 2016, Market Regulation staff issued requests to Wedbush for the production of records, documents and information related to regulatory inquiries. Wedbush, acting principally through its former Chief Compliance Officer, failed to respond in a timely manner to numerous requests. The Panel concluded that Wedbush thereby violated CME Rules 432.L.3 and 432.W. In accordance with the settlement offer, the Panel ordered Wedbush to pay a fine of $55,000

Pursuant to an offer of settlement in which Wedbush Securities Inc. neither admitted nor denied the rule violations upon which the penalty is based, on March 30, 2017, the Clearing House Risk Committee found that Wedbush Securities Inc. violated CBOT Rules 951., 958.C., 970.A., 970.A.1., 970.A.3.d., 970.C.2., 971.A., 980.B.3. and 980.C. In accordance with the settlement offer, the Committee imposed a $500,000 fine. In accepting this offer, the Committee agreed to waive $250,000 of the fine based on the firm's compliance with industry rules, regulations and requirements through the completion of the next risk based examination. At the April 2018 Clearing House Risk Committee Meeting, the Committee determined to assess the remaining $250,000 fine.

A Subcommittee of the ICE US Business Conduct Committee ("BCC Subcommittee") determined on May 21, 2017 that Wedbush Securities Inc. ("Wedbush") may have violated Exchange Rule 2.21(a) by failing to submit a copy of the firm's financial statement certified by an independent Certified Public account within the requisite time period. In accordance with the settlement offer, the Subcommittee ordered Wedbush to pay a fine of $10,000.

Pursuant to an offer of settlement in which Wedbush Securities Inc. neither admitted nor denied the rule violations upon which the penalty is based, in June 2018, the Clearing House Risk Committee found that Wedbush Securities Inc. violated CBOT Rules 951., 970.A., 971.A., 971.A.1. and 980.B. In accordance with the settlement offer, the Clearing House Risk Committee imposed a $100,000 fine.

Potentially material actions that have not been concluded and are not noted above:

Chart Trading Development LLC v. Trade Station Group, Inc., et al. in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern Division of Texas, Tyler Division, Case No. 6:15-CV-1136-JDL. This action names Wedbush, along with numerous other defendants, for direct and indirect infringement of certain U.S. patents allegedly owned by plaintiff. Litigation in the case has been stayed pending the outcome of a review by the US Patent and Trademark Office of the applicability of the relevant patents. It is not possible presently to estimate the potential for injunctive relief or loss, if any. We believe we have meritorious defenses to the allegations made and intend to defend the firm vigorously.

Joseph Semprini vs. Wedbush Securities Inc. filed with the Orange County California Superior Court, Case No. 30-2015-00776114-CU-OE-CXC. This is a Class Action Complaint for Damages, Injunctive Relief and Restitution by former Newport Beach F.A., Joseph Semprini. The Class is generally all current and former Wedbush California employees who, in the period within four years of the filing of the complaint, were subject to the same allegedly unlawful conduct as Semprini. Plaintiff's motion for class certification was granted on June 28, 2017. No trial date has been set. We are attempting to coordinate a mediation. It is not possible presently to estimate the potential for any loss, if any. The firm believes it has meritorious defenses to the allegations made and intends to defend the firm vigorously.

Bright Harry vs. KCG Americas LLC filed with the Northern California District Court Case No. C17-2385. Mr. Harry filed this action seeking to recover more than $45 Million in damages and other relief arising from alleged misconduct of the above-named defendants for the period November 2013 to April 2015. On April 4, 2018, counsel for Wedbush prepared to file a motion asking the court to relieve Wedbush of any obligation to file a response to Claimant's Notice of Motion and Motion for Judicial Review pending the outcome of our to be filed motion to dismiss Harry's recently filed amended complaint. Wedbush is indemnified by the prior clearing firm ("KCG") for this claim and will seek to coordinate a response working with counsel at KCG.

7. CUSTOMER FUNDS SEGREGATION

Customer Accounts:

FCMs may maintain up to three different types of accounts for customers, depending on the products a customer trades:

- (i) Customer Segregated Account for customers who trade futures and options on futures listed on U.S. futures exchanges;
- (ii) 30.7 Account for customers who trade futures and options on futures listed on foreign boards of trade; and
- (iii) Cleared Swaps Customer Account for customers trading swaps that are cleared on a DCO registered with the Commission.

The requirement to maintain these separate accounts reflects the different risks posed by the different products. Cash, securities and other collateral (collectively, Customer Funds) required to be held in one type of account, e.g., the Customer Segregated Account, may not be commingled with funds required to be held in another type of account, e.g., the 30.7 Account, except as the Commission may permit by order. For example, the Commission has issued orders authorizing ICE Clear Europe Limited, which is registered with the Commission as a DCO, and its FCM clearing members: (i) to hold in Cleared Swaps Customer Accounts Customer Funds used to margin both (a) Cleared Swaps and (b) foreign futures and foreign options traded on ICE Futures Europe, and to provide for portfolio margining of such Cleared Swaps and foreign futures and foreign options; and (ii) to hold in Customer Segregated Accounts Customer Funds used to margin both (c) futures and options on futures traded on ICE Futures US and (d) foreign futures and foreign options traded on ICE Futures Europe, and to provide for portfolio margining of such transactions.

Customer Segregated Account. Funds that customers deposit with an FCM, or that are otherwise required to be held for the benefit of customers, to margin futures and options on futures contracts traded on futures exchanges located in the U.S., i.e., designated contract markets, are held in a Customer Segregated Account in accordance with section 4d(a)(2) of the Commodity Exchange Act and Commission Rule 1.20. Customer Segregated Funds held in the Customer Segregated Account may not be used to meet the obligations of the FCM or any other person, including another customer.

All Customer Segregated Funds may be commingled in a single account, i.e., a customer omnibus account, and held with: (i) a bank or trust company located in the U.S.; (ii) a bank or trust company located outside of the U.S. that has in excess of $1 billion of regulatory capital; (iii) an FCM; or (iv) a DCO. Such commingled account must be properly titled to make clear that the funds belong to, and are being held for the benefit of, the FCM's customers. Unless a customer provides instructions to the contrary, an FCM may hold Customer Segregated Funds only: (i) in the U.S.; (ii) in a money center country; or (iii) in the country of origin of the currency.

An FCM must hold sufficient U.S. dollars in the United States to meet all U.S. dollar obligations and sufficient funds in each other currency to meet obligations in such currency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, assets denominated in a currency may be held to meet obligations denominated in another currency (other than the U.S. dollar) as follows: (i) U.S. dollars may be held in the U.S. or in money center countries to meet obligations denominated in any other currency; and (ii) funds in money center currencies may be held in the U.S. or in money center countries to meet obligations denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar.

30.7 Account. Funds that 30.7 Customers deposit with an FCM, or that are otherwise required to be held for the benefit of customers, to margin futures and options on futures contracts traded on foreign boards of trade, i.e., 30.7 Customer Funds, and sometimes referred to as the foreign futures and foreign options secured amount, are held in a 30.7 Account in accordance with Commission Rule 30.7.

Funds required to be held in the 30.7 Account for or on behalf of 30.7 Customers may be commingled in an omnibus account and held with: (i) a bank or trust company located in the U.S.; (ii) a bank or trust company located outside the U.S. that has in excess of $1 billion in regulatory capital; (iii) an FCM; (iv) a DCO; (v) the clearing organization of any foreign board of trade; (vi) a foreign broker; or such clearing organization's or foreign broker's designated depositories. Such commingled account must be properly titled to make clear that the funds belong to, and are being held for the benefit of, the FCM's 30.7 Customers. As explained below, Commission Rule 30.7 restricts the amount of such funds that may be held outside of the U.S.

Customers trading on foreign markets assume additional risks. Laws or regulations will vary depending on the foreign jurisdiction in which the transaction occurs, and funds held in a 30.7 Account outside of the U.S. may not receive the same level of protection as Customer Segregated Funds. If the foreign broker carrying 30.7 Customer positions fails, the broker will be liquidated in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is organized, which laws may differ significantly from the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Return of 30.7 Customer Funds to the U.S. will be delayed and likely will be subject to the costs of administration of the failed foreign broker in accordance with the law of the applicable jurisdiction, as well as possible other intervening foreign brokers, if multiple foreign brokers were used to process the U.S. customers' transactions on foreign markets.

If the foreign broker does not fail but the 30.7 Customers' U.S. FCM fails, the foreign broker may want to assure that appropriate authorization has been obtained before returning the 30.7 Customer Funds to the FCM's trustee, which may delay their return. If both the foreign broker and the U.S. FCM were to fail, potential differences between the trustee for the U.S. FCM and the administrator for the foreign broker, each with independent fiduciary obligations under applicable law, may result in significant delays and additional administrative expenses. Use of other intervening foreign brokers by the U.S. FCM to process the trades of 30.7 Customers on foreign markets may cause additional delays and administrative expenses.

To reduce the potential risk to 30.7 Customer Funds held outside of the U.S., Commission Rule 30.7 generally provides that an FCM may not deposit or hold 30.7 Customer Funds in permitted accounts outside of the U.S. except as necessary to meet margin requirements, including prefunding margin requirements, established by rule, regulation, or order of the relevant foreign boards of trade or foreign clearing organizations, or to meet margin calls issued by foreign brokers carrying the 30.7 Customers' positions. The rule further provides, however, that, in order to avoid the daily transfer of funds from accounts in the U.S., an FCM may maintain in accounts located outside of the U.S. an additional amount of up to 20 percent of the total amount of funds necessary to meet margin and prefunding margin requirements to avoid daily transfers of funds.

Cleared Swaps Customer Account Funds deposited with an FCM, or otherwise required to be held for the benefit of customers, to margin swaps cleared through a registered DCO, i.e., Cleared Swaps Customer Collateral, are held in a Cleared Swaps Customer Account in accordance with the provisions of section 4d(f) of the Act and Part 22 of the Commission's rules. Cleared Swaps Customer Accounts are sometimes referred to as LSOC Accounts. LSOC is an acronym for "legally separated, operationally commingled." Funds required to be held in a Cleared Swaps Customer Account may be commingled in an omnibus account and held with: (i) a bank or trust company located in the U.S.; (ii) a bank or trust company located outside of the U.S. that has in excess of $1 billion of regulatory capital; (iii) a DCO; or (iv) another FCM. Such commingled account must be properly titled to make clear that the funds belong to, and are being held for the benefit of, the FCM's Cleared Swaps Customers.

Investment of Customer Funds:

Section 4d(a)(2) of the Act authorizes FCMs to invest Customer Segregated Funds in obligations of the United States, in general obligations of any State or of any political subdivision thereof, and in obligations fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States. Section 4d(f) authorizes FCMs to invest Cleared Swaps Customer Collateral in similar instruments.

Commission Rule 1.25 authorizes FCMs to invest Customer Segregated Funds, Cleared Swaps Customer Collateral and 30.7 Customer Funds in instruments of a similar nature. Commission rules further provide that the FCM may retain all gains earned and is responsible for investment losses incurred in connection with the investment of Customer Funds. However, the FCM and customer may agree that the FCM will pay the customer interest on the funds deposited.

Permitted investments include:

(i) Obligations of the United States and obligations fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States (U.S. government securities);

(ii) General obligations of any State or of any political subdivision thereof (municipal securities);

(iii) Obligations of any United States government corporation or enterprise sponsored by the United States government (U.S. agency obligations);³

(iv) Certificates of deposit issued by a bank (certificates of deposit) as defined in section 3(a)(6) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or a domestic branch of a foreign bank that carries deposits insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;

(v) Commercial paper fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States under the Temporary Liquidity Guarantee Program as administered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (commercial paper);

(vi) Corporate notes or bonds fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States under the Temporary Liquidity Guarantee Program as administered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (corporate notes or bonds); and

(vii) Interests in money market mutual funds.

The duration of the securities in which an FCM invests Customer Funds cannot exceed, on average, two years.

An FCM may also engage in repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions with non-affiliated registered broker-dealers, provided such transactions are made on a delivery versus payment basis and involve only permitted investments. All funds or securities received in repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions with Customer Funds must be held in the appropriate Customer Account, i.e., Customer Segregated Account, 30.7 Account or Cleared Swaps Customer Account. Further, in accordance with the provisions of Commission Rule 1.25, all such funds or collateral must be received in the appropriate Customer Account on a delivery versus payment basis in immediately available funds.⁴

9. RISK PRACTICES, CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES:

The risk management policies and procedures of Wedbush are designed to identify, measure, and manage risks associated with the operations of the FCM. The following is intended to summarize risk management policies and procedures of Wedbush as they relate to the futures and options on futures trading activities of customers and affiliated entities.

Margin Requirement

Margin deposits are good faith deposit posted by each client to collateralize their obligation to the Company under open futures and options on futures positions. Generally, all futures clients are required to pre-fund their accounts with adequate margin to collateralize the risk associated with such clients' positions prior to establishing such positions. Margin requirements established by the Company may not be less than those mandated by the relevant exchange and/or clearinghouse and in certain circumstances such margin requirements may be increased above the exchange minimums at the sole discretion of the Company. The Risk Management Department of Wedbush monitors margin levels and compliance with funding requirements throughout all trading hours. Margin calls are issued daily and in certain circumstances intra-day. Under-margined accounts that fail to meet a margin call may be subject to a reduction of open positions or immediate liquidation.

New Accounts

Prior to opening of a futures account, the clients must complete relevant new account documents, which include certain information about the client. Such documents may include, without limitation:

- The Futures Division Customer Agreement
- CFTC Regulation 1.55 Risk Disclosure Statement
- Consent to Jurisdiction
- Electronic Trading Disclosure Form
- Identity Verification Document/Corporate Documents
- Financial Information

Additionally, a potential client must disclose certain information about his financial status, yearly income, and trading experience. Wedbush reserves the right to decline accounts that do not meet our standards for credit worthiness, financial resources, and/or trading experience.

Trading Limits

Pursuant to CFTC Regulation 1.73(a)(1) and (2) et al, each electronic trading system must maintain pre-execution credit and risk control features. Such features must allow Wedbush Risk Management personnel to set and maintain the following:

- Maximum order size
- Maximum theoretical position limits, or
- buying power/margin

The Wedbush Risk Management Department sets credit limits and risk controls for each electronic trader prior to enabling such trader's access to The Wedbush Futures Electronic Access Point. Determinations regarding the level of maximum order size, maximum position limit, and maximum dollar loss are set based on the review of relevant information for the client. Factors affecting risk management decisions in this area may include:

- Amount of funds on deposit
- Contemplated activity
- Trading experience
- Creditworthiness – as determined by the criteria set forth herein
- External market condition

- Client's historical activity with Wedbush

As part of its risk management program, Wedbush utilizes risk management tools provided by futures exchanges and/or futures clearing houses to the extent that such tools are available. Such tools shall be utilized in conjunction with other relevant tools and procedures as set forth herein.

Post Execution Risk Management

The Risk Management Department maintains ongoing post-execution surveillance of the trading activity in the accounts. Trading activity is captured by our risk management systems on a virtual real-time basis. Our post-execution surveillance contains, but is not limited to, the following:

a. Stress Testing

Pursuant to CFTC Regulation 1.73(a)(4), it is the policy of Wedbush to stress-test all futures client positions. Such stress-testing shall be conducted daily. Further, the Risk Management Department may stress-test futures positions held by clients and affiliates at more frequent intervals. Stress-testing shall include, but is not limited to, the following types of risk:

- Adverse price movement
- Adverse changes in volatility

b. Estimation of Liquidation Costs

Pursuant to CFTC Regulation 1.73(a)(7), Wedbush Risk Management Department evaluates periodically the ability to liquidate positions in an orderly manner. Further, the costs of such liquidation are also evaluated. The evaluation may include, but is not limited to:

- A review of positions and stress-testing of positions
- A review of internal calculation of "max risk" reports designed to estimate the effect of extreme movements on the value of open positions and subsequent account value.
