

BRITTANY
RODI*ONBOARDING
COORDINATOR,
HUMAN RESOURCES*LOS ANGELES, CA*What is one thing that most people would be surprised to learn about you?

I was a part of the Guinness World Record for the loudest crowd roar at a sports stadium. Chiefs fans registered a 142.2 dBA reading at Arrowhead Stadium while playing some team from the East Coast, also known as the Patriots.

When did you first become interested in working in finance?

I was first drawn to finance when I took my first economics class in high school. Then, I decided I wanted to study business and went on to take more economics and finance courses in college. I was intrigued by how heavily human behavior impacts the economy. Working at Wedbush has furthered my finance knowledge. When I started here, I was a Credit Analyst and learned about all different types of investments.

In three sentences, tell me about your role at the firm.

I am the Human Resources Onboarding Coordinator. Once the recruiter makes the candidate an offer, I facilitate the onboarding process and welcome them to the Wedbush team. This includes conducting new hire orientations for all Wedbush colleagues. Also, I am responsible for the internship program at Wedbush.

What do you like to do in your spare time?

Outside of work, I enjoy cheering on the Los Angeles Dodgers and Kansas City Chiefs with my family. In addition to watching sports, I like to play co-ed softball with my friends. I also like going to the beach, attending concerts, and traveling.

What famous person would you like to meet and why?

I would have liked to have met Walt Disney. I admire his ability to think outside of the box and build a brand. His innovation and creativity has created a worldwide brand that invites diversity and imagination for many generations.

If you could visit any place in the world, where would it be and why?

I have always wanted to visit Italy. My great-grandparents are from Sicily so I would like to start there and then travel to Florence, Rome, and Venice. I would do a lot of sightseeing like visit the Colosseum and ancient ruins. Since Italian cuisine is my favorite, I wouldn't mind eating a bunch of authentic delicious dishes.
