What famous person would you like to meet and why?

Dead or alive? Dead, Howard Hughes. Lucky for me, I can talk to Mr. Wedbush about that one – he worked at his original aircraft factory in El Segundo! Alive, Tim Cook. He's an inspirational leader.

When did you first become interested in working in finance?

For me, it was a natural progression from being a numbers and economics guy. I realized from an early age that if I wanted to build things, if I wanted to make things happen, the numbers had to make sense. In finance, it's great because if the numbers make sense, everyone else is going to want to help you build your dream.

In 3 sentences, tell me about your role at the firm.

Breaking News! I am the newest addition to Wedbush's Agency Desk! In this role, I help traders & brokers place their trades on various platforms. In my previous role, I was a Prime Broker specialist assisting in the settlement of equities and bonds.

What do you like to do in your spare time?

Right now I'm reading the Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin. I meditate at least 10 minutes a day and hitting the gym with dad is part of the routine. I also enjoy flying my DJI Phantom 4 drone.

What is one thing that most people would be surprised to learn about you?

I completed my MBA at 21 years old.

If you could visit any place in the world, where would it be and why?

No doubt, Egypt. I've always had a fascination with the pyramids, how they were built, the people behind them, and the Pharaohs of Egypt.
