LUSK

CORPORATE RECEPTIONIST

What famous person would you like to meet and why?

My favorite person is the one and only Maya Angelou. Her words soothe the soul of the reader. Although she has made her transition, her impact on me will always remain and I trust that I can touch others in the way she spoke to my soul.

When did you first become interested in working in finance?

To be honest, I am not one to like numbers very much, however, what directed me toward my career in the banking industry for (15 years) was my mother. She was a purchaser for Lloyds Bank, so that inspired me to follow in the same path. I started out as a teller and worked my way up to becoming the supervisor of New Accounts specializing in court-ordered accounts.

Tell me about your role at the firm.

I am the Corporate Receptionist and my role is to make sure that everyone that comes in contact with Wedbush Securities either by phone, or visit, the corporate office is greeted with a smile and care, not only for visitors and clients, but everyday interactions with my co-workers as well.

What do you like to do in your spare time?

I am a nature girl! I enjoy a good hike with friends and when we get to the top, we enjoy the beautiful scenery and great conversations.

What is one thing that most people would be surprised to learn about you?

Although I am known for being outgoing and talkative, I am really a quiet person who likes to spend time alone in deep thought. I am also a writer of spoken-word pieces.

If you could visit any place in the world, where would it be and why?

I would like to visit Egypt. I have always been fascinated by the pyramids and writings.
