

Wedbush Securities' Natalie A. Svider Promoted to Senior Vice President and Marketing Director
Millie Khoe Upped to Vice President, Marketing and Corporate Events Director

Los Angeles, CA – November 14, 2017 – Wedbush Securities is pleased to announce the promotion of Natalie A. Svider to Senior Vice President and Marketing Director. In her new role, Natalie will oversee the Marketing Department, along with her continued role in Public Relations. Prior to her new role, Natalie served as the firm's Vice President of Public Relations. Additionally, Millie Khoe has been upped to Vice President, Marketing and Corporate Events Director. Her previous role with the firm was as Meetings and Events Manager. Both are based at the Wedbush Los Angeles Headquarters. Natalie will report directly to Executive Vice President, and Chief Administrative Officer, Don Hultgren.

Natalie joined Wedbush in 2016 after running her own consultancy practice where she represented clients in a variety of sectors including entertainment, music, non-profit, cyber security, and social media marketing. Previously, she was a Senior Account Supervisor with global public relations firm, Ruder Finn, where she worked with both private and publically held companies on the agency's roster. Natalie began her public relations career as an Executive Assistant to the Head of Television Publicity at Warner Bros.

"It is an exciting time to have expanded responsibility with Wedbush," states Natalie Svider. "I am very much looking forward to working with our extremely talented marketing team, and making a significant impact for the firm and all its divisions."

Don Hultgren says "Natalie and Millie have extensive careers built on success. I am confident that the marketing team is under great leadership."

Natalie is a Los Angeles native who earned her B. A. in Radio TV Broadcasting from California State University, Northridge in Northridge, CA. Millie earned her B.S. in Business Administration, Management from California State University, Los Angeles.
