

Wedbush Securities Appoints Danny Nadalalicea to New Post Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer

Los Angeles, CA – September 18, 2018 – Wedbush Securities is pleased to announce the appointment of Danny Nadalalicea as its Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer. In this newly created role, Danny will serve as a member of the Executive Committee and will be responsible for firm-wide development and execution of information technology. He is based in Wedbush's Los Angeles headquarters and reports to Co-Presidents Richard M. Jablonski and Gary L. Wedbush.

"I am excited to a part of the Wedbush team," states Danny Nadalalicea. "We are in a unique position to take our technology platform to a new level. Wedbush is a nimble organization that allows IT to turn challenges into opportunities in short order, and I am very much looking forward to deploying best-in-class technology to better serve our clients and colleagues alike."

Co-Presidents Richard M. Jablonski and Gary L. Wedbush add, "Wedbush is strengthening its commitment to technology excellence and innovation by establishing this new CIO leadership role and including the position as a member of the Firm's Executive Committee. We eagerly welcome Danny's extensive technology management experience in the financial services industry, and look forward to the firm's accelerated advancements under his leadership."

Prior to joining Wedbush, Danny spent 12 years with CLSA, Ltd, in technology management roles, with the last two and a half years as its Managing Director and Chief Information officer. Before this he was Chief Technology Officer with SetClear, and Vice President, Senior Software Engineer with G-Trade.

Danny received his Bachelor's degree in Computer Science from Queens College and is a veteran of the United States Army, where he served as a Cryptologic Linguist.
