

Wedbush Securities' Sean Scanlon Is Promoted to Senior Vice President, Middle Office Manager

Los Angeles, CA – February 2, 2016 – Wedbush Securities is pleased to announce the promotion of Sean Scanlon to Senior Vice President, Middle Office Manager. Prior to his new position in the Middle Office, Sean served as Project Manager, starting with the firm in August of 2013. In June of 2014, he was assigned to manage the newly developed Middle Office functions at Wedbush. Along with his tenure at Wedbush, his previous roles as IT Project Manager at Calyon Securities USA Inc./Credit Agricole Securities USA, and OTC Sales Trading at Traditional Asiel Securities, demonstrate his exemplary skills and strong background experience in building out and leading the Middle Office Team.

The establishment of Wedbush Securities' Middle Office demonstrates the firm's strong and strategic focus on increased regulations and the high demand for further accuracy, transparency, and customized reporting, as well as investment performance analysis, custodial reconciliation, and cash flow management. The firm's Middle Office is key in gathering information for the development of strategic decisions, as it continues to grow and play an increasingly significant role. As such, the Middle Office Team reports directly to senior management, as to ensure that its performance is consistently efficient and effective.

"I am very pleased with the immediate and deeply significant impact that the inception of the middle office has had firm-wide. Moreover, I look forward to further growing the capabilities and reach of the Middle Office Team as we look to be fully integrated into the operational activities within Wedbush Securities and Lime Brokerage," states Sean. Rich Jablonski, Executive Vice President at Wedbush Securities, adds, "Sean is an essential facet to the development and success of the Middle Office Team at Wedbush. His exemplary skills and capabilities complement the strategy and initiatives that we are pursuing within my departments at Wedbush."
