WEDBUSH FUTURES JOINS ERIS AS A CLEARING FIRM

Eris Exchange extends execution and clearing to Wedbush Futures' network of professional traders and institutional clients.

Chicago, October 17, 2017 -- Eris Exchange (Eris), a U.S.-based futures exchange that offers swap futures as the leading alternative to traditional over-the-counter (OTC) swaps, and Wedbush Futures jointly announced today that Wedbush Futures is the latest Futures Commission Merchant (FCM) to join Eris Exchange, and offer execution and clearing of Eris Swap Futures.

Wedbush Futures, a division of Wedbush Securities Inc., is one of the largest capitalized non-bank FCMs in the United States, and has been a leading provider of clearing services for over 30 years. "Adding support for Eris Swap Futures was a natural step, as we strive to offer a full suite of services to our growing client base," stated Bob Fitzsimmons, Managing Director, and Head of Futures. "Eris provides the market with easily accessible interest rate swaps in futures format, significantly broadening swap market access to new liquidity providers and commercial end users."

"Successful organic growth of the Eris eco-system is contributing to acceleration in user interest for Eris Swap Futures by hedgers and institutional investors, as evidenced by our recent open interest record of more than 200,000 contracts," said Geoff Sharp, Managing Director at Eris Exchange. "Adding Wedbush further bolsters Eris' distribution, as their clients include new trading firms to provide liquidity in Eris Swap Futures, and new end users from their institutional client base."

Neal Brady, CEO of Eris Exchange added, "Wedbush's addition of Eris comes on the heels of FASB's recent amendments to hedge accounting guidelines, and also as the cost of OTC swap trading increases as a result of a proposed capital treatment rule change by the Federal Reserve. These factors position Eris as the optimal alternative to meet client hedging and trading needs and the addition of Wedbush will bring this opportunity to more users."
